

Ratzo v'Shov: The Sacred Dance of Yearning and Returning

Our Sages use the metaphor of ratzo v'shov – running towards holiness and retreating – because it beautifully depicts the oscillation between the holy and the mundane.

Come study with Boulder's rabbis as we discuss this sacred dance. We will rise to new heights and bring home the riches of our communal Torah study.

7 pm	Mincha (optional Shabbat afternoon service)
7:30 pm	Seudah Shlishit (Third Meal with singing &amp; intention setting)
9 pm	Ma'ariv (Evening service, Candle lighting, Kiddush)
9:45 – 11	Opening Rabbinic Panel: Personal Tales of Ratzo v'Shov: Going In and Out of Holiness
11:15 pm	Learning with Rabbis Tirzah Firestone, Fred Greene and Ori Har
12:45 am	Meditation by the Creek
1:30 am	Learning with Rabbi Marc Soloway
2:45 am	Learning with Morah Yehudis
4:00 am	Hevruta Learning
5:00 am	Dawn Davenen: Sunrise Shacharit (incl. reading Torah of Revelation)

Community Wide Tikkun Leyl Shavuot
June 11-12, 2016, Sat. night through Sun. dawn
At Congregation Bonai Shalom, 1527 Cherryvale in Boulder